

How Summer Reading Works

Fill out the Registration Form in this brochure, at the library, or online (the QR code is on the back. You get a FREE book just for signing up!

Pick up a Reading Journal for your reading level (Early Readers or Kids & Teens). Reading Journals will be available at the Library starting Monday, June 17th, 2024.

Early Reader Journals

Read, sing, play! Color in an image after doing one of the activities listed on the sheet. Every completed journal gets you 1 library dollar!

Kids & Teens Reading Journals

Track your hours read. Every 5 hours read earns you a library dollar!

When you turn in a paper journal at the library, you will get library dollars right away.

Want Portland Trailblazer tickets?

This year, if you sign up and turn in just one complete journal, you get a children's ticket to see the Portland Trailblazers!

Frequently Asked Questions

My kid doesn't know how to read yet. Can he/she still participate?

Yes! Children benefit from reading the day they are born. Reading with your child and participating in other early literacy activities (outlined in the early reader journal) count for summer reading.

I haven't signed up for Summer Reading. Can I still come to the events?

Yes! All Summer Reading events are FREE for everyone; you don't even need a library card! We do encourage you to register and get your FREE book just for signing up! No RSVPs required.

How long do programs and events last?

We aim for 60 minute programs, but sometimes programs run slightly longer.

How are prizes awarded?

Every time you turn in a completed journal at the library, you will receive one library dollar. These can be spent on cool prizes that you can find at the Library Store. Think of it as turning in tickets at an arcade!

When is the last day of Summer Reading?

The last day to turn in your reading journals and redeem your library dollars is August 31st.
